

UniKL
UNIVERSITI
KUALA LUMPUR

REFRIGERANTS PHASE OUT: CHALLENGES AND OPPORTUNITIES IN MALAYSIA
14 June 2017 (Wednesday)

Speaker	Biography
	Mr Salahudin Bin Sidik is the Senior Principal Assistant Director at Ozone Protection Section, Air Division, Department of Environment. He joined the Department of Environment in 1992. Since then, he worked at various offices within the Department of Environment.
	Ms Shafizah Jabar Basha is an Assistant Director at the Department of Environment Malaysia. She has 16 years of working experience at the Department of Environment (DOE), Malaysia. She has experience in the International Affairs Section particularly on Multilateral Environmental Agreements. She involved in evaluation of environmental monitoring and pollution control on the basis of enforcing the Environmental Quality Act 1974. Currently, she is working at the National Ozone Unit, Air Division dealing with the implementation of Montreal Protocol in Malaysia, and actively involved in the negotiation for Montreal Protocol for the protection of ozone layer and the recent Kigali Amendment. She is a member of Technical Committee on Working Group of Flammable Refrigerant And Ecolabelling Product Criteria Document for Air Conditioners.
	Mr. Ng Wen Bin is a senior lecturer in Heating, Ventilating, Air Conditioning and Refrigerating Section, Universiti Kuala Lumpur Malaysia France Institute. He has 20 years of experience in HVACR industries. He is actively involved in the development of numerous National Skill Standard since 1999 for various agencies such as MLVK, JPK and CIDB. He also served in several working committees in developing Training Manual for Technician in Refrigeration &amp; Air-Conditioning Sector for DoE, CIDB and SIRIM. His current research is focusing on refrigerants.
	Mr. Abel Gnanakumar is the Vice President of Refrigeration for Asia, Middle East &amp; Africa at Emerson Commercial &amp; Residential Solutions. Mr. Abel has vast experience (25 years) in HVACR systems, especially on scroll compressor technologies. He has a global patent on Vapor Injection Scroll system. He has worked in Application Engineering, Product Testing and Marketing prior to his present role.
	Mr. Kwan Chee Wei has over 22 years of experience in HVACR industries. He obtained his engineering degree from Universiti Malaya. He started his career at Malaysia Air Conditioning manufacturer OYL (now part of Daikin Group), before joined an America company, Alco Controls. To date, he has been working for 14 years at German refrigerant compressors manufacturer (BITZER), as the General Manager for South East Asia region. His office is in Malaysia. Mr. Kwan is the pioneer in business development program for BITZER in various countries, particularly in Vietnam, Sri Lanka, Thailand and other countries in South East Asia region.

Contact Us

Ozone Protection Section,
Department of Environment
Level 4, Podium 3,
Wisma Sumber Asli
No.25, Persiaran Perdana,
Precint 4, 62574 Putrajaya
Phone: +603-8871 2000/2200
Web: www.doe.gov.my